This Business Air News Handbook Index is one of a series of daily-updated documents available to visitors to the BAN web site.

For a full list of the aircraft currently published please visit the www.businessairnews home page. Subscriptions are available to individuals and to organisations wishing to provide site-wide access for all staff.

Note that the information contained in this report has been compiled from a variety of sources, and has not necessarily been confirmed by the aircraft manufacturer or specific supplier in every case. Please refer to our terms and conditions of use on the last page of this report.

Consult our library free-of-charge

We produce more than 25 Index reports on individual business aircraft types, and update them every day.

To download these free-of-charge simply log in at www.businessairnews.com, search for the aircraft type and click on the cover.

Sponsor one of these Index reports to receive these exclusive benefits:

- Your company name on the front cover
- Full page advertisement on page two
- Your sponsored report made available to all-comers without login
- Prominent name and web links alongside the download on the aircraft's main page
- Your advertising message included in an email to all owners of and suppliers to this aircraft type worldwide
- Exclusivity: Each report has just one sponsor

Citation X

Upon its introduction in 1996, the Citation X (model 750) became the fastest civilian aircraft in the world. It was introduced at the October 1990 NBAA convention in New Orleans and the prototype made its maiden flight on 21 December, 1993. Type certification was received on 3 June, 1996.

The first Citation X was delivered in July 1996 to golfer and long-time Cessna customer Arnold Palmer, who set a speed record in September 1997 of 473 knots on a 5,000 closed course. Other owners included film director Sydney Pollack, entrepreneur Steve Fossett, Formula One driver Nelson Piquet and at least one former US president.

The Citation X was approved by Transport Canada on May 22, 1998, and by the European Joint Aviation Authorities in 1999.

The wing, tail, tail cone, gear and systems of the Citation X were designed from scratch. It was the first aircraft from Cessna to use a Rolls-Royce engine and fully integrated avionics, and while it has the same fuselage diameter as the Citations VI and VII, the wing attachment to the fuselage, slung under rather than passing through, is different from that in any previous Citation.

The large diameter of the engine intakes reduces the noise from the pod-mounted engines and improves fuel efficiency, and the highly swept wing with supercritical airfoil increases the top speed. The Citation X has 37 degrees of sweepback at the quarter chord and the horizontal and vertical stabilisers are also highly swept and are arranged in a T-tail configuration.

Its controls are powered by dual-hydraulic systems for redundancy. One of the major challenges of the overall design was finding enough space in the wing to run all the necessary hydraulic lines. At the time, the chief engineer of the program explained: "The Citation X needs just as many hydraulic pumps and actuators as a large airliner, but has much less space inside the wings."

In 2018, after a 22 year run, production of the Citation X came to an end. The imminent arrival of the Citation Longitude meant crossover in terms of range and capacity and so the 750 series was phased out.

This Index is just the tip of the iceberg

Over 400 aircraft types are analysed on the Business Air News Handbook website, and in our printed annual Handbooks

Plus there is comprehensive coverage of over 9,500 airports worldwide, and over 8,000 FBOs and handlers. There is a full calendar of important events, our excellent charter trip planner, and everything is fully cross-referenced and indexed for simple and effective reference.

A subscription for full and unlimited access is just £225.

BUSINESS AIR NEWS

HANDBOOK INDEX

SUBSCRIBING

This report is one of a series of indexes about specific aircraft types, and the companies that operate and support them all around the world, derived from data in the online Business Air News Handbook at www.businessairnews.com. It is updated every day.

Web site users can access these PDF reports free of charge simply by logging in. Those without login details can request access by contacting Janet Edwards on janet@businessairnews.com, or by completing the form at www.businessairnews.com/mag_subsfree.html

These reports are limited to just a few specific aircraft types, whereas the Business Air News Handbook on the web has data for around 400. Users can access a few pages a month to sample the data, and can take out a paid subscription for full and unlimited access.

UPDATING

To advise us of additions, updates or corrections to the data in this report, please contact Stephen Campbell on +44 (0)1279 714512 or stephen@businessairnews.com.

ADVERTISING

Companies included in the report who have taken out paid advertising on the Business Air News Handbook web site, are automatically highlighted in the report.

Enhanced entry advertising starts at just £210 for a whole year.

Sponsorship of these reports is also available and includes:

- Name on front cover
- Full page advertisement on page 2
- Sponsored report made available to all-comers without login
- Prominent name and web links alongside the download on the aircraft's main page
- Advertising message included in our email to all owners of and suppliers to this aircraft
- One exclusive sponsor

Terms and conditions of use

The Business Air News report ("Document") is a publication developed by Stansted News Limited ("SNL"). By downloading and reading the document you are deemed to have accepted these terms and conditions.

USE OF CONTENT: The services and information provided in this Document are for your personal, non commercial use only.

ACCURACY OF INFORMATION: Neither SNL nor any of its data providers or affiliates make any warranties expressed or implied, as to the accuracy, adequacy, quality or fitness for any particular purpose of the information or the services for a particular purpose or use and all such warranties are expressly excluded to the fullest extent that such warranties may be excluded by law.

INDEMNITY: You irrevocably indemnify SNL and its data providers and affiliates from and against any and all losses, damages and costs suffered or incurred by SNL, or any data providers or affiliates of whatsoever nature arising out of or in connection with your use, provision or distribution of information of any part of this Document or any part or otherwise howsoever arising in relation to any breach of these terms and conditions by you.

HYPERTEXT LINKS: This Document provides hypertext links to sites on the Internet which are operated by other people. SNL takes no responsibility for and gives no warranties, guarantees or representations in respect of linked sites.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY: All intellectual property rights (including copyright, patents, trade marks) whether registered or not in this Document shall remain the property of SNL and no customer or other person shall, or shall attempt to obtain any title to such rights. Information appearing in this Document is the copyright of SNL and must not be reproduced in any medium without licence. Users are permitted to copy some material for their personal use as private individuals only. Users must not republish any part of the data either on a website, or in any other medium, print, electronic or otherwise, or as part of any commercial service without the prior written permission of SNL.

ADVERTISING AND SPONSORSHIP: Parts of this Document contain advertising and sponsorship. Advertisers and sponsors are responsible for ensuring that material submitted for inclusion in this Document complies with all legal and regulatory requirements and does not contain any material which is objectionable including, without limit, information which is defamatory, obscene, threatening or untrue. SNL will not be responsible for any such material or any error or inaccuracy in advertising material.

LIABILITY: Due to the number of sources from which this Document obtains content and the nature of electronic distribution via the world wide web neither SNL nor any of its data providers nor affiliates shall have any liability (whether in contract or tort) for any losses, costs or damages resulting from or related to use of or inability to use any information contained in this Document or the provision of this Document to the fullest extent to which such liability may be excluded or avoided by law and in no event shall SNL be liable to you for lost profits or for indirect, incidental, special, punitive or consequential damages arising out of or in relation to the provision of information on this Document. SNL makes no warranty that this Document is free from infection by viruses or anything else that has contaminating or destructive properties.

JURISDICTION: These terms and conditions will be governed by the laws of England and Wales and the parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.
